

Problem statement Farmers face challenges about crops selling & fertilizer buying time get difficulties in accessing quality fertilizers at competitive prices, farmers does not get idea of current situation of market. To know about current situation of market, & crops cost & fertilizers we need website/app through which people can understand about market situation & get crops information.

1) Executive Summary Snapshot:-

- The project aims to streamline the buying & selling processes for crops and fertilizers by establishing the platform.
- The farmers can easy to get contact with buyers & suppliers. The creating an online marketplace where farmers can purchase high quality fertilizers in competitive prices.
- The platform will include features such as real time prices updates of crops.
- We can ensure that farmers can maximize their profits minimizing transaction cost & time delays.

- Project Description

The project involves creating a unified platform that integrates crops management and fertilizer procurement into a single system.

The platform will allow the farmer to know the market demand & situation, good quality fertilizers from buyers and suppliers.

The aim is to provide a holistic tool that supports farmers in optimizing their crop production while managing fertilizer use effectively.

The goal of making a platform for many farmers presents following challenges. Such as we need to contact with market continuously & also with farmers; buyers & sellers/suppliers to take updates of new fertilizers.

★ Project Scope

Developing a two-platform for a farmer to trading of crops and fertilizers. Implementation of user registration and profile management tailored for farmers, buyers, and suppliers. The project scope is to get help for farmers to get maximum amount of their crops & get the high quality fertilizers.

This platform helps the farmers to directly contact with suppliers & buyers as well as farmers know about the current market situation. Farmers will get proper amount for their crops. Suppliers can also contact with farmers directly.

This online platform helps the farmer & suppliers to get in contact as well as they know about current situation of markets. Farmers know market rate for the crops. This platform helps the farmer for their crops & to get quality fertilizers for their crops.